

Crochet School Clown Holder

This cute little clown hangs on the wall and holds a ruler, crayons and pencils. Handy and decorative. The little ones will love him.

Supplies include:      Crochet Hook Size G
Plastic Doll Face ~~~ see information below.
12 inch ruler...8 crayons...2 or 3 pencils
5 1-1/2-inch pom-poms purchase or make your own
4 ply yarn in bright colors ~~ a good way to use leftovers in mix and match colors in any order that is pleasing to the eye
You will also need a 1/4 inch paper punch, and a hot glue gun.

You may prefer to use the cool melt glue sticks for this project

Optional supplies: white spray paint and sharpies in black & red

Concerning the plastic faces....this is a vintage pattern and in the original version, you could buy the clown faces as well as the doll faces. The clown faces are no longer available, but you can still find the doll faces at Hobby Lobby and other craft stores .So you may either use the doll face or you may do as I have done and paint the doll face. In the photo at the left, you see the doll faces that are available, and the ones that I have painted. The painting is very simple. Spray the face first with white paint. Let dry and using red and black sharpies and redraw the new features on.

The outlines of the face will make this easy to do.

Punch a hole on each side of the face at the neck to attach the ruffled collar. and one hole on each side of the face at eye level to attach the hat and pom-poms. See photo at right.

2nd Row: In first 2 sc work together as 1 st (decrease), 1 sc in each st across to last 2 sts. Work last 2 sc together as 1 st (decrease). (10 sts)

Remaining rows: Continue to decrease 1st and last st in each row until only one st remains.

Tie off. Position hat across forehead of clown, and tie the sides into the holes at eye level.

Pull cap up on forehead, and tack to the top of the face with cool melt glue. (If using hot melt glue, squeeze a little onto the hat, wait a few moments before applying to the face.

Refer to photo for position of cap.

Tie pom-poms in place as shown in photo. leave the ties on the tip of the hat a little long and tie again at the end for a hanger to hang your clown. You may need to add a touch of glue to the sides of the face.
